

1^e DONUT DEAL

Amsterdam

Foundation Pracht en Kracht and foundation Cocratos agree that they will enter into a collaboration whereby 5 women, who currently hardly participate in society, start sewing and /or insulating curtains for a fair fee.

Donut-criteria:

- It contributes to the solution of the climate problem: curtains ensure less heat loss and therefore less gas consumption ('outer part of the donut').
- It contributes to the strengthening of the social foundation of Southeast ('inner part of the donut'):
 - The women are enabled to make an appropriate, valuable contribution to society.
 - They grow in self-esteem and reduce their tension complaints, their resilience increases.
 - We record acquired competencies. It is another kind of education in which they can participate.
 - It is intended to grow into a cooperative organisation in which work and income can be gathered.
 - Curtains contribute to keeping the energy bill affordable.
